

How do I become a CMI Partner?

CMI Partners offer their prayers and financial support to enable us to impact nations and multiply God's kingdom by upholding front line leaders with professional coaching and coach training.

Individual CMI Partners pledge to give at least $30 per month ($360 per year) or more to CMI's general fund. That's just $1 per day!

Corporate CMI Partners pledge to give at least $300 per month ($3,600 per year) or more to CMI's general fund.

CMI Partners invest in CMI's day-to-day operations, including:

- Time and resources for development of effective programs
- Administrative costs such as bookkeeping and program evaluation
- Salary for CMI's director
- Training and recruitment of new coaches
- Phone, office, printing, and website expenses

We honor those who invest in CMI!

CMI Partners enable us to do that work that God is calling us to do! We value your commitment to us, and we consider CMI Partners to be valued co-workers. Partners will receive the following:

- CMI newsletter and email updates
- Prayer digest and other mailings which might include teaching CDs, coupons, prayer cards, workbooks, or articles of interest
- Be prayed for individually by a CMI intercessor once per year
- Be featured at CMI fundraising events (for corporate partners, with permission)
